Jeff Nowak, Shareholder and Co-Chair, Leave and Accommodation Practice Group, Littler Mendelson

Jeff Nowak has decades of experience advising and litigating on behalf of employers on a wide range of complex employment law matters.

Jeff is a recognized leader on FMLA and ADA issues, helping employers develop comprehensive strategies to achieve compliance with employee leave and accommodation issues. Jeff is lauded by clients for his ability to bring a practical approach and unflappable demeanor to the most sensitive and difficult situations, always with an eye on the client's business and operational objectives. Given his experience in leave management and workplace accommodations, Jeff regularly counsels some of the country's largest and diverse employers on these critical employment issues.

Jeff is the author of the highly regarded FMLA Insights blog, which has earned him entry into the ABA Journal's Blogger Hall of Fame. He also is a highly sought after speaker on FMLA/ADA issues, most notably serving on the faculty of the National Employment Law Institute (NELI) and a frequent speaker for the Disability Management Employer Coalition (DMEC).

Betsy Rader, District Director, EEOC Charlotte District Office

Betsy Rader is the District Director of the EEOC's Charlotte District, which includes six offices in Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina.

Prior to joining the EEOC in 2023, Ms. Rader was Regional Director of the Office for Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education. She has also served as Senior Counsel for a non-profit healthcare system, the largest employer in Ohio. Her prior experience includes representing workers in her own employment law firm, running a government agency advocating for abused children, and conducting business and employment litigation at an international law firm.

She graduated from Yale Law School in 1986 after receiving her B.A. summa cum laude in Classics from The Ohio State University. Following law school, she was a judicial clerk for a judge on the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Her volunteer work has included serving as Vice-President of the Board for the Cleveland Legal Aid Society, serving on the Board of the Ohio Employment Lawyers Association, and serving as President of the Northeast Ohio Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel.
